30th edition of the MICHELIN guide Main Cities of Europe to be released

The guide features a selection of hotels and restaurants in 44 cities in 20 European countries to make traveling easier

The MICHELIN guide Main Cities of Europe 2011 will go on sale, in France, on April 4 for €22.90.

The 30th edition of the guide, which was first published in 1982, offers a selection of hotels and restaurants covering all comfort and price categories in 44 cities across 20 European countries (full list below).

In all, the MICHELIN guide Main Cities of Europe 2011 features 1,557 hotels (of which 110 new entries) and 1,771 restaurants (199 new). The selection of restaurants includes 239 displaying the Bib Gourmand pictogram, which indicates very good value for money (46 new), 15 awarded three stars, 58 with two stars (of which 6 new) and 284 with one star (39 new), as well as 23 pubs that serve good meals and 34 tapas bars.

One recent development is the rapid growth in gourmet restaurants in Budapest, which now has its second one-star establishment – Onyx – as well as four awarded the Bib Gourmand label. Confirming that the trend towards greater value for money extends across all countries, the selection includes six new Bib Gourmand restaurants in Copenhagen (for a total of twelve) and two new Bib Gourmand restaurants in Helsinki (for a total of four).

Written in English, the MICHELIN guide Main Cities of Europe 2010 targets business travelers and tourists visiting leading European cities who want to be able to easily find a restaurant or hotel that meets their requirements.

To adapt to readers' changing needs, the selection of the MICHELIN guide is now more widely available than ever: on the Viamichelin.com website (more than 400 million visitors a year) for choosing a restaurant when at home, in the paper guides, of which more than one million copies were released worldwide last year, and via iPhone applications that enable users to find the right restaurant close to where they are. The Europe iPhone application (priced at €14.99) includes restaurants from MICHELIN guides in all European countries, including those covered in the Main Cities of Europe guide. Applications are also available for France, Italy, Germany, Spain & Portugal and the United Kingdom (€7.99 each).

For more than a century, the MICHELIN guide collection has made traveling easier by providing a selection of the best restaurants, hotels and guesthouses around the world. Today, the 26 guides in the collection cover 23 countries on three continents and include more than 45,000 addresses worldwide in all comfort and price categories.
